Dedication

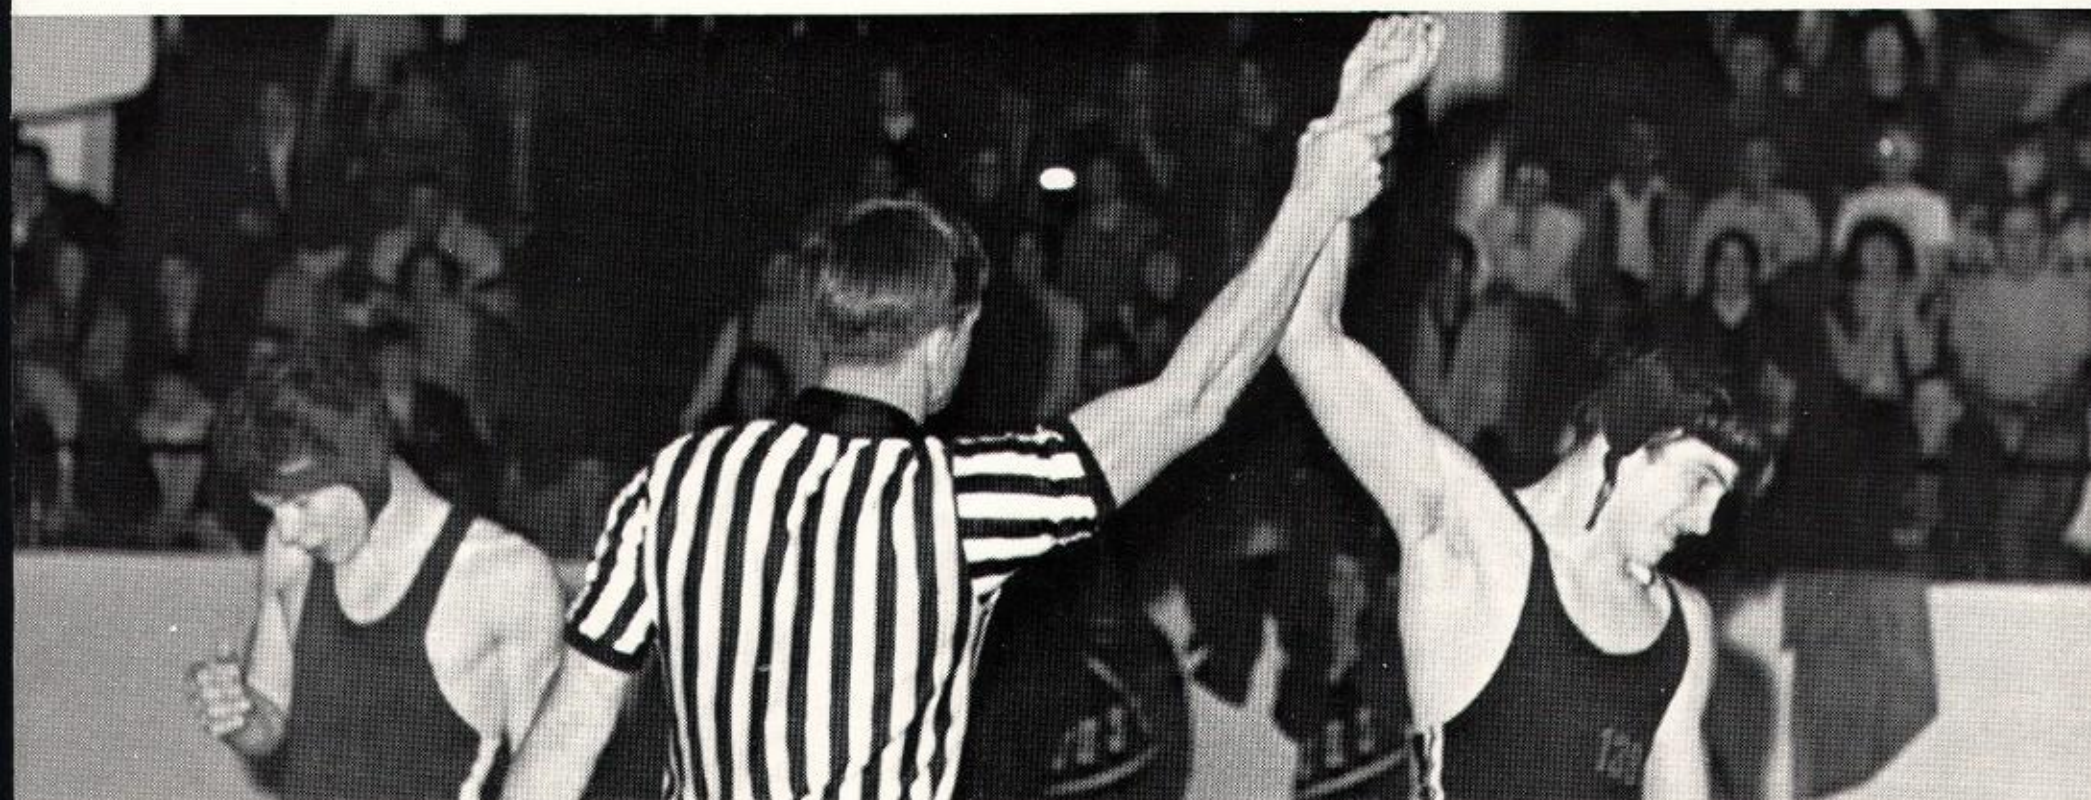

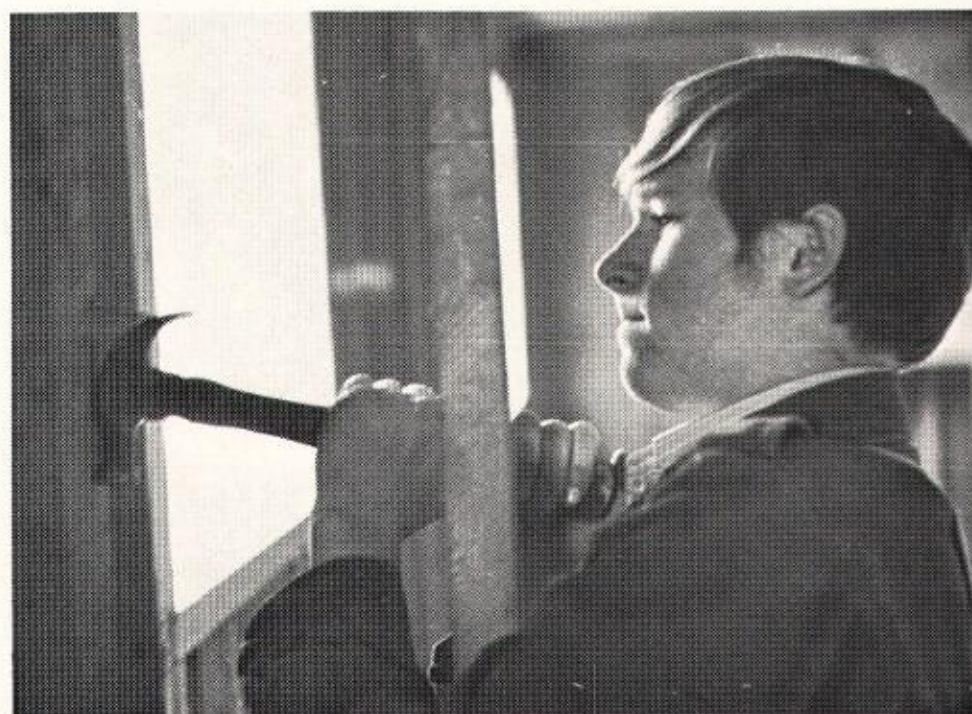

We, the class of 1970, dedicate our Saghalie to the person we consider our "teacher of the year". With his ready wit and teasing comments, he has established a basis of communication between his students and himself. Yet it is not often that a popular teacher has the ability to impart knowledge as effectively as this man does. His precise yet understandable explanations have lifted many a student out of the confusion of geometry, algebra, trigonometry, and calculus. Every year he acts as an unofficial counselor as he guides seniors through the maze of decisions surrounding a college education.

Because of your great concern for the quality of educational opportunity presented to each student, we the seniors of 1970 dedicate this Saghalie to you, Mr. Bruce Kreger.

Someday There'll Be "A Time for Us"

A spacious, beautiful castle set the scene for the Senior Ball this year. Really, it was only the Angle Gym recreated with brick walls, royal thrones, medieval plaques, and a flowing fountain. Romeo and Juliet never had surroundings so romantic and peaceful.

King Bill Freeto and his Queen, Donna Welch, reigned over the majestic festivities. Couples danced to the music of Ed Allenback and the Continentals. Afterwards the lovely ladies were escorted to a romantic candlelight dinner.

Cross Country Clan Crushes Competitors

Cross Country is a fairly new athletic activity in Shelton High School. For the past few years, our long distance runners have had a winning team and this year was no exception. The team finished this year with four wins, one tie, and three losses. In competition the team placed fourth in the AA class of the Olympic league and 12th in district competition.

Determined Team, Discouraging Season

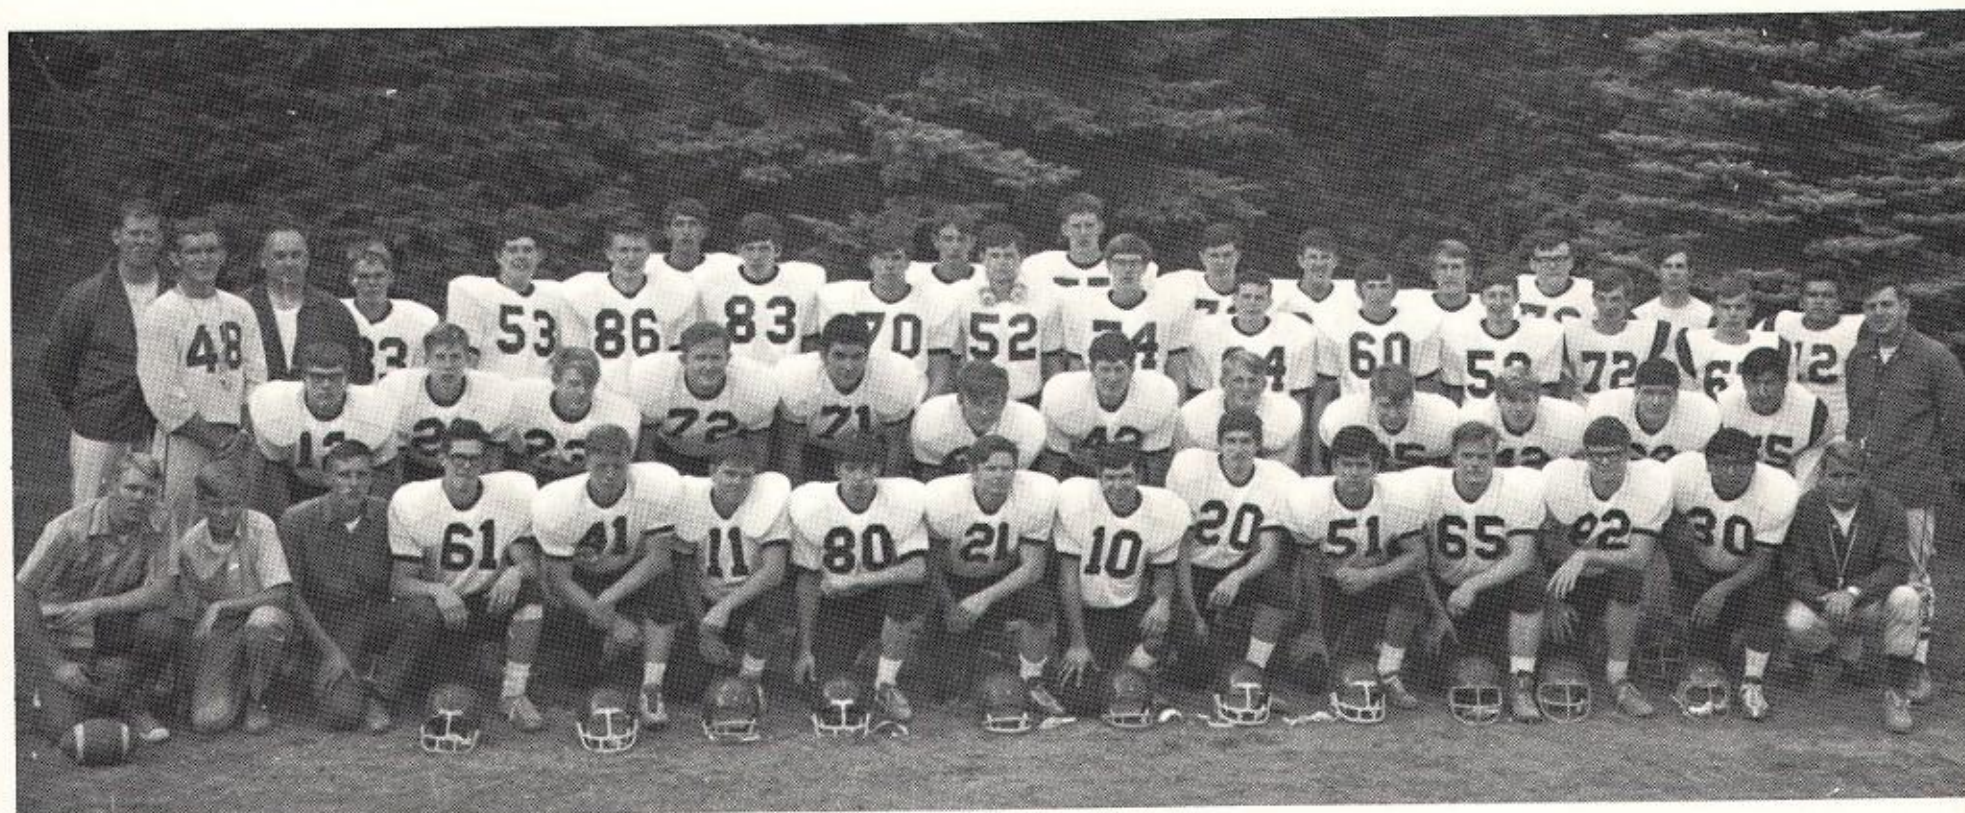

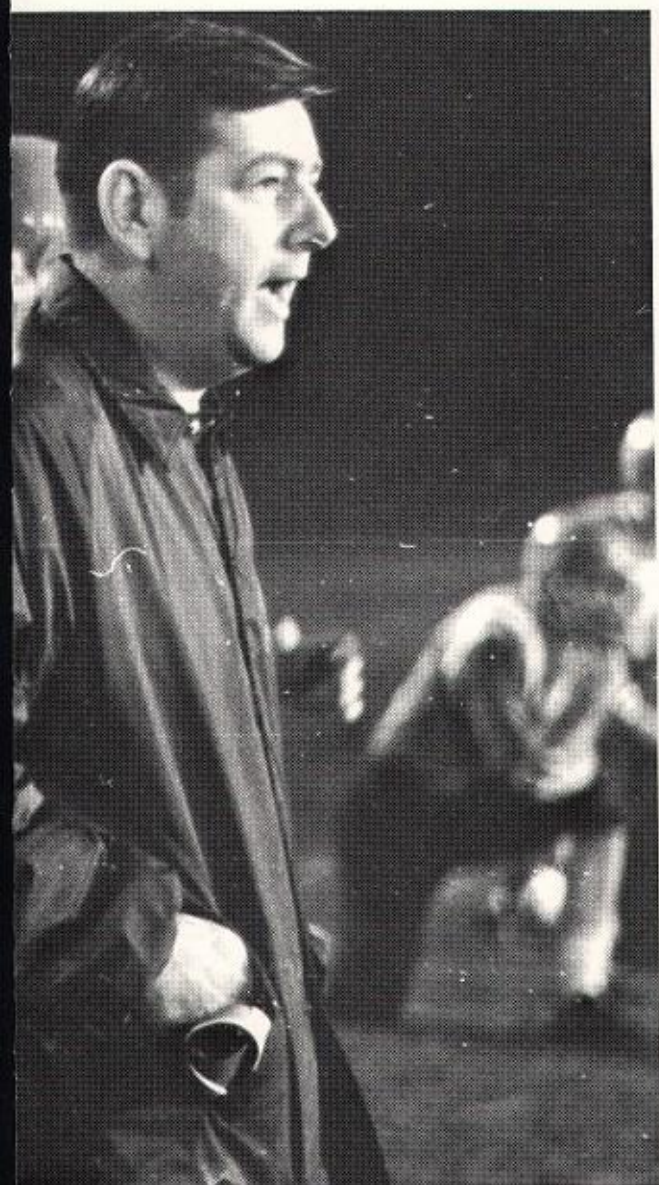

The Shelton High School Highclimbers were faced with a very challenging 1969 season. Besides the problem of breaking in a new team of sophomores and juniors, they had to break in a new coach, Mr. Jack Stark.

This year the coaching staff introduced football turnouts in the junior high level, in an attempt to gain experienced players for the future seasons.

Homecoming...

It's Happening at the Zoo

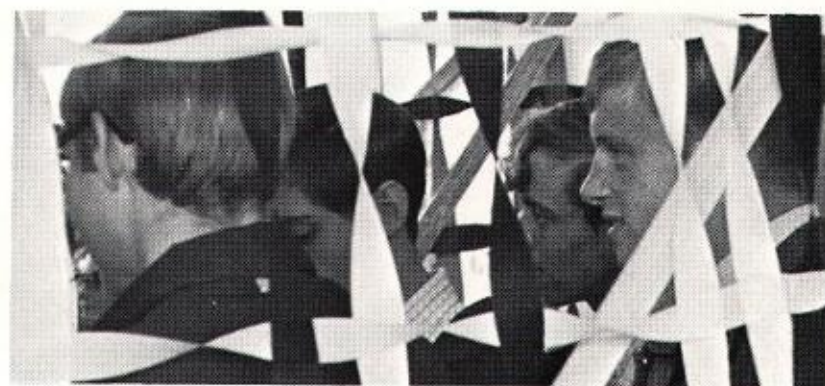

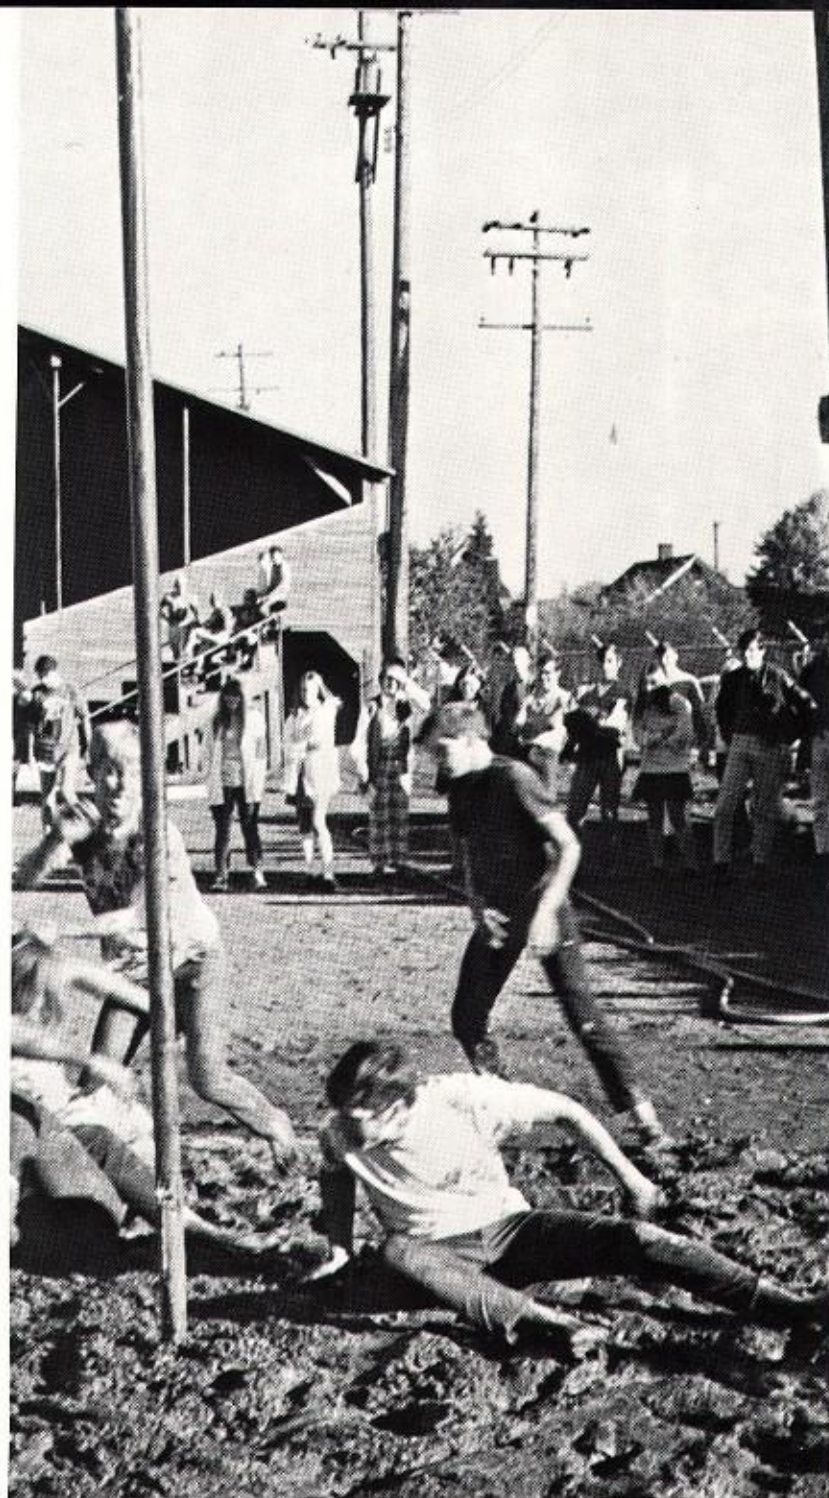

The monkeys stand for honesty, giraffes are insincere, and the elephants are kindly but they're dumb...so began the excitement and enthusiasm of Homecoming. The Homecoming "Kickoff Assembly" was a fitting start to the occasion. The braver members of the faculty presented their version of the success of the valiant Highclimbers. The highlight was the selection of the Homecoming Court: Karen Cole, Mary Tabor, and Wendy Bolender.

Among the plans of the seniors for Senior Day was the jello slurp and a zoo in the Angle Building. The highlight of Junior Day was the peanut push which was won by the juniors. The mighty team of seniors defeated the juniors in the greased pole event, held after school at Loop Field. Sophomores proved superior when it came to tricycle racing, as they demonstrated during their day of Homecoming. Everyone participated in the Ugly Man Contest to raise money for the new high school.

The crackling flames of the traditional bonfire rose high above the shouts and laughter of the crowd. This was the time in which the students released their pep and energy.

Friday was the day all looked forward to. At the pep assembly the students waited with mounting anticipation for the crowning of their Homecoming queen. Amid the drum rolls, each girl opened a box, one containing a red rose, the symbol of the queen's reign. It was found by Mary Tabor who became the 1970 Homecoming queen.

At the Homecoming game the Highclimbers played the North Kitsap Vikings. Though we were defeated, our spirits never failed. After the game the students headed for the Angle Gym, for the dance with the Axis-Drive.

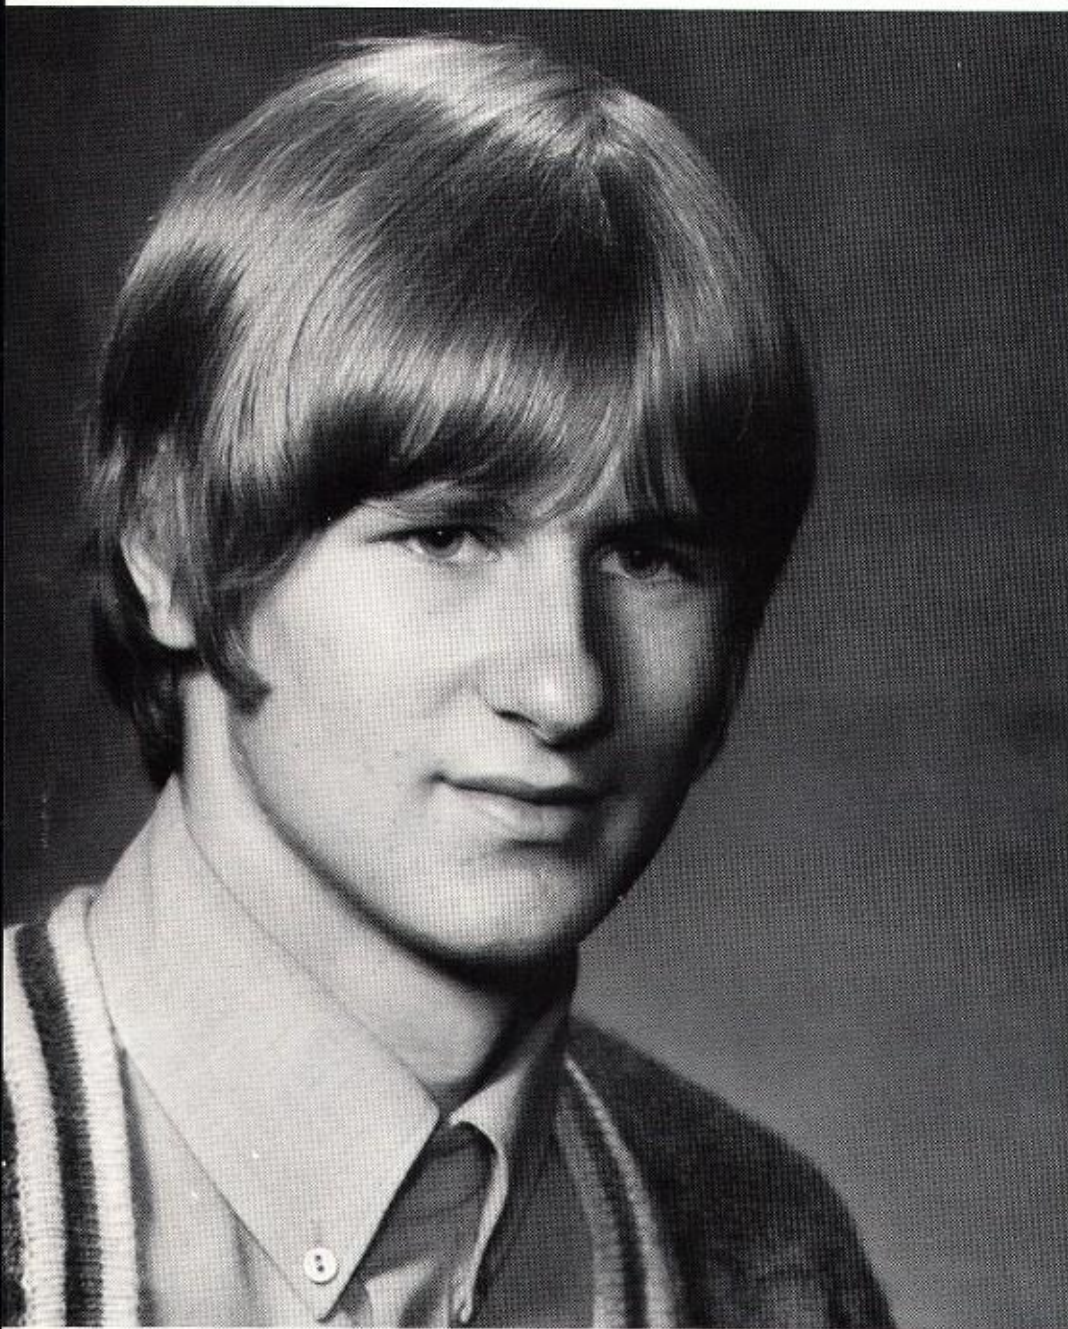

Co-presidents Jim Connolly and Sue Lemagie, Secretary Sandy Borovesky, Treasurer Urpo Lappalainen.

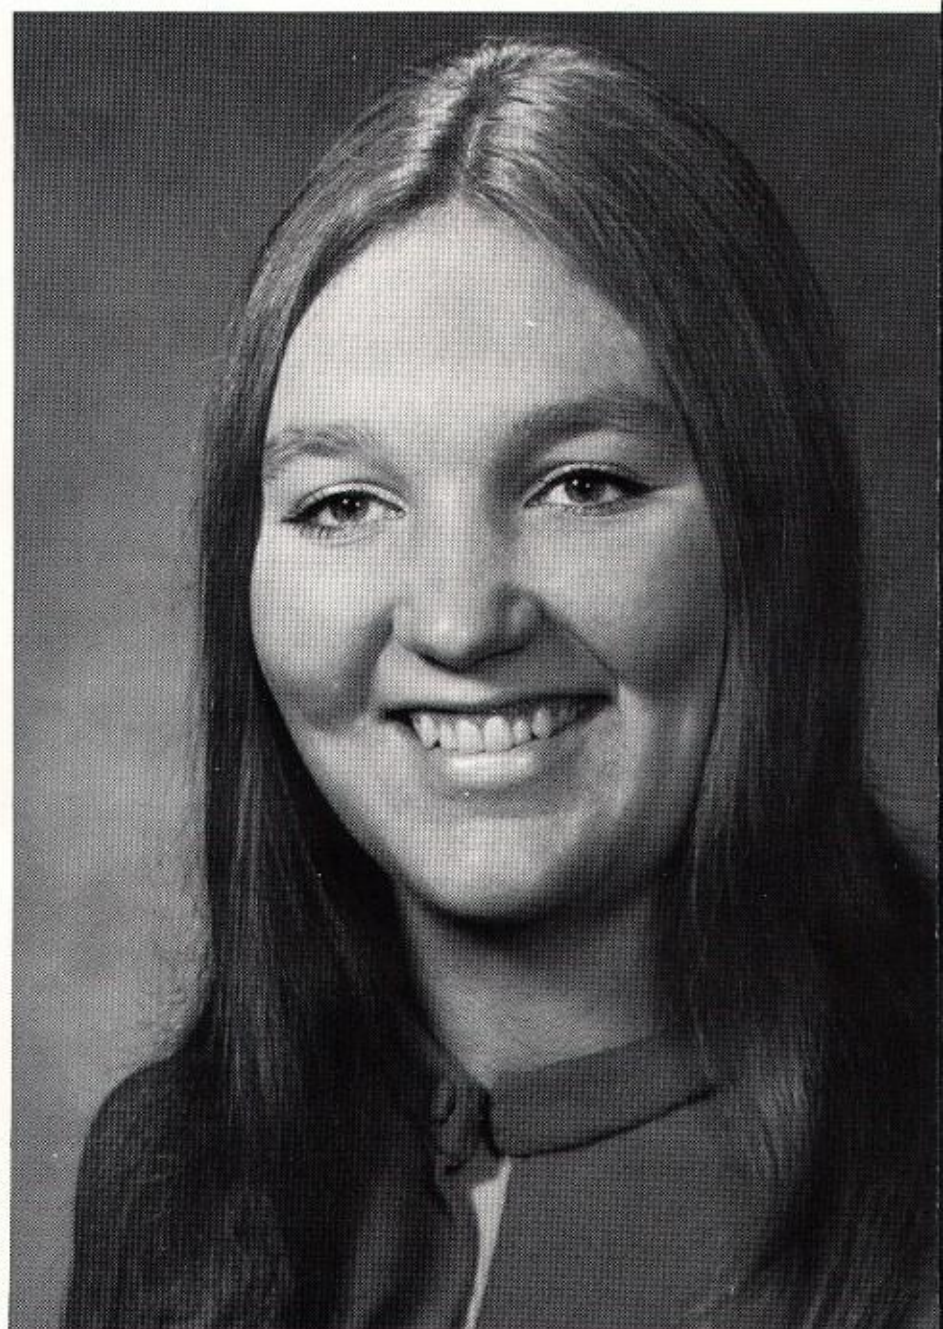

Advancing Goodwill in An Active AFS

Ambition and enthusiasm characterized this year's American Field Service Chapter. Two exchange students, Urpo Lappalainen, sponsored by AFS, and Eva Hansson, sponsored by Rotary, attended our school this year. SHS also had two representatives abroad; Danny Nye and Marsha Moore.

Money making projects included, kiddy movies on Saturday, a work day, and an exciting car rally with a dance by America afterwards.

Revelation 21:4

Dauntless Damsels Decoy Dream Dates

Tolo season opens and the males of SHS tremble whenever a female comes near. The normally shy, retiring girls sharpen their claws and stalk their game for an escort. That special guy secured, the evening of February 7 advances all too rapidly. Nervously, the girls await the arrival of their dates, who finally appear, flowers in hand. A quick cruise through the Square, then the couples converge at the Angle Gym, where the theme "Wear Your Love Like Heaven" is vividly illustrated with clouds, zodiac symbols, and streaming fog. "Hope", a Bremerton rock band, blasts out wild rhythms as a light show pulses on the ceiling. Girls lead their dates to the mile-long line for souvenir pictures, then out to dinner, and so ends the '70 Tolo season.

Gym Rafter's Ring for Cinderella Team

This year's Highclimber basketball team produced one of the finest seasons ever known to SHS. The boys are accredited to a 14 win and 5 loss record in regulation play, but finished with 11 wins and 3 losses in league play, just one game behind the Central Kitsap champs. Chosen as first team all conference players were Mike Sparks and Jim Corey. Remaining seniors playing in their last season were Randy Lewis, Rusty Corey, and Brad Jones. Interest and dedication throughout the year certainly determined the direction of the team. The Shelton Team led in the defense department by holding league opponents to a 59 point average while we scored 68 points per game average. Headed by Coach Terry Gregg, the '69-'70 basketball team will never be forgotten.

Raging Wrestlers Romp Over Rivals

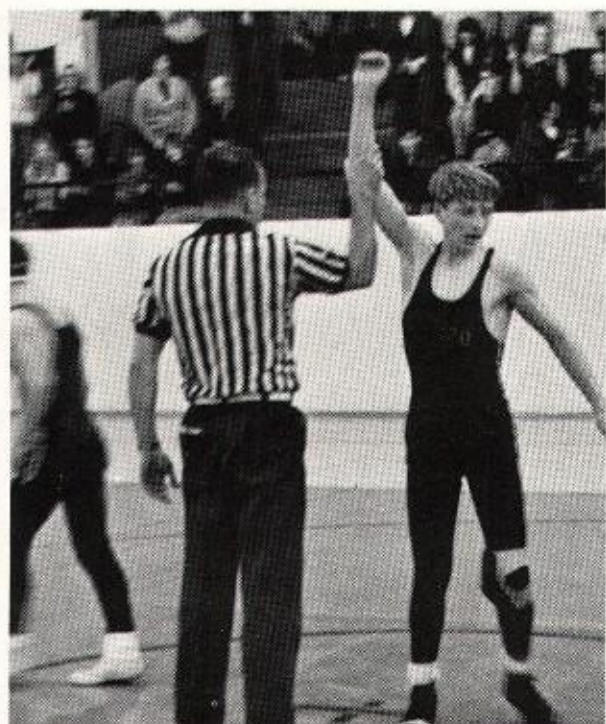

Our wrestlers experienced many disappointing losses during the '69-'70 season, but the team's indomitable spirit never faltered. The Highclimber team consisted mostly of inexperienced sophomores and juniors, who were busy coping with the basic skills and holds. However, next year, under the capable direction of Coach Wentz, the grapplers will have the techniques and experience necessary for a strong, unified team. The wrestlers, for all their enthusiasm, were rewarded with a four win, one tie, and seven loss record. Experience, combined with their never-give-up attitude, should result in a large number in the win column for next year. With their spirit, success is definitely in the future.

Aqua Lads Make With a Big Splash

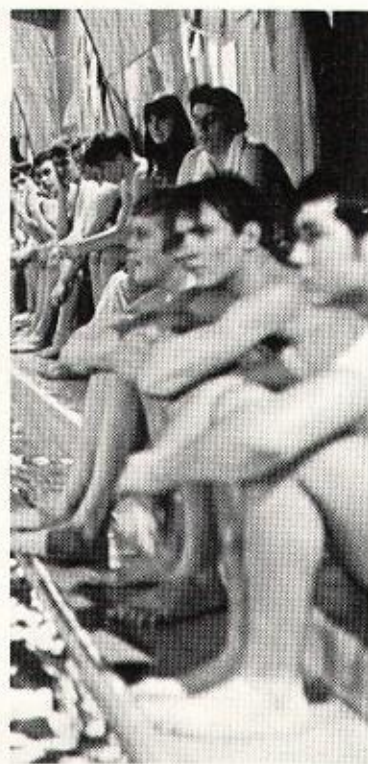

A new competitive sport was introduced in our school this year. A boys' swimming team was added to our athletic schedule. The '69-'70 swimming team competed in pennant matches, and next year's plans include participation in conference matches as well. Coach Doug Hanna drilled the boys in the basic contest strokes, including Australian crawl, breast, back, and butterfly strokes. Participation in the Southwest Championships in Olympia resulted in Jim Kimmerly qualifying for State competition. The beginning team started out with a win-loss record of one win, one tie, and five losses, with hopes high for improved future seasons. With all the returning underclassmen, next year's team should prove to be made up of real Aqua lads.

Interest Sprouts in Poignant Play

This year's annual Drama Department production, The Bad Seed, written by William March and adapted into a play by Maxwell Anderson, was quite unlike those of the past. Rhoda Penmark, an eight year old girl, looks like an angel but is as diabolical as a devil. One of Rhoda's schoolmates is mysteriously drowned at a picnic. The boy who was drowned was the one who had won the penmanship medal that Rhoda felt she deserved. It involves a mysterious murder farther back in Rhoda's infamous career and a gruesome murder later on when she fears that she is being trapped. It is a shattering play largely because it involves such decent people. Heredity or environment? Which is predominant in forming a human personality?

A Good Year for a Hard Hitting Nine

Shelton's baseball team hurled through the year, finally scoring an eleven win-eight loss record and a seven win-seven loss league record thus placing fourth in the league. Seniors swung into the spotlight when Jim Corey and Brad Jones pitched no-hitters, and were also chosen Senior All-Star and All Conference players. Also stealing the title of Senior All-Star was Curt Stracke, who cruised the field with variety, vim, and vigor. Led by Coach Ellis, the hot team stopped a little short of a team championship position. But by looking at the group of returning sluggers, chances are great that Shelton will move up to position #1 next season.

Swift Feet on Muddy Track: Winning Team

Shelton has seen a great track team during the 1970 season. Completing the year with a 4 win-3 loss record, Shelton can place much praise on the fine cindermen that led the rest. Randy Lewis led his mates in points, accumulating 112 of Shelton's 495 points. He pole vaulted his way to district, where he proved to be the best leaper, tying Shelton's previous record. Also representing Shelton at district was Gary Burger in the 880, George Lemagie in the 440, and Rob Settle in high jump. Then Randy fled off to State, representing his school and district at Pullman. Track's other top scorers are mainly juniors. Coach Brickert has the faith, so do the boys; so let's hope for another good one next year.

Racketeers Rally to Ace Out Opponents

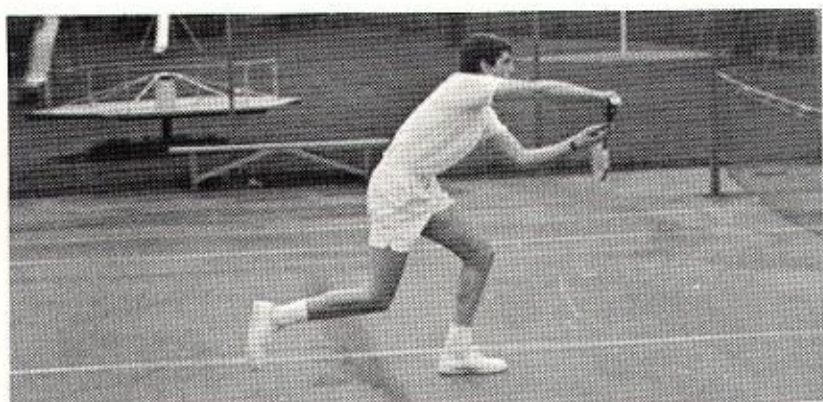

Leaping from side to side, with balls whizzing all the while, the boys' tennis team finished a strong year, ending up in 4th place in the Olympic League. High-ranking player was Bob Quimby, with Steve Evander and Jeff Okano more than filling the 2nd and 3rd spots. The pros battled out an overall 9-3 win/loss record. The highlight of the season was the trip to Salt Lake City in early summer to watch the college pros in action at the NCAA championship games.

Their female counterparts also profited with a season's total of 5 wins and 3 losses. Sandy Pozorski was "queen of the courts" followed by Kim Sowers in number 2 position, with Valerie Sparks and Sue McDowell constantly swapping third spot.

Duffers and Divots Appear on the Green

Birdies and eagles abounded at the Bayshore Golf Course this spring, as the Shelton squad completed a gainful season. Their only handicap to League Championship was Central Kitsap, who again blocked Shelton into second place.

The strong swingers of the squad, led by Bob Turner and Rich Walker, swamped John F. Kennedy in the playoffs for the State Match held in Everett. After all the bogies and double bogies were counted, and the dust had cleared, the Shelton team boasted a ten win, three loss record. Greg Hergert won the rare honor of getting "a hole in one." If our noble golfers can make it through a summer of broken 9-irons and lost balls, next season they'll be back, pursuing victory as relentlessly as ever.

"Those Were the Days" of Memories

Springtime: that time of year when a Young Man's thoughts turn to Fancy (or Mary, or Jane), and he begins to seek a date for the Junior Prom. Naturally he wants to escort the most popular broad of the year, but since she was snapped up months ago, he invites the girl he sits by in algebra (even though she gets better grades than he does). The big evening arrives, he picks up his date and drives to the Angle Gym, where he finds he forgot to release the emergency brake. In the gym, sounds of "America" are reverberating in the air, and pretty girls in their long gowns and elaborate hairdos are freaking in time to the music. Our young Shelton man and his date bravely smile as the camera lights flash, proving forever their presence at the 1970 Junior Prom.

With an Irish Jig and a Bit o' Green

This year's musical, put on by the Shelton High Music Department during Forest Festival, was "Finian's Rainbow," written by E.V. Harburg and Fred Saidy. Finian McLonerigan comes to America with the idea that anyone can become a millionaire when in America. Along with his daughter, Sharon, he makes his way to Rainbow Valley, Misstucky, where Finian begins to carry out his plans—using his "borrowed" pot of gold. Through all this emerges a happy ending. Sharon and Woody get married, Finian goes to his imaginary land of Gloccamorra, and the Leprechaun gets Sharon, the girl of his dreams. With enthusiastic crowds and an eager cast, the musical proved to be a rewarding addition to Forest Festival.

What is a logger?

A logger is the voice of America's great timberlands, past and present and future, reaching out to inspire the imagination of a nation.

To some the logger is Paul Bunyan, larger than life, bawdy, rough, stomping over everything life puts in his way, and leaving spiked footprints with his caked boots.

To others he is a farmer of the forest, harvesting the trees like the crop they are, staying out of sight and out of mind.

The real logger is a little of each, and more than either.

He's a man of all ages who dresses in staggled jeans, caked boots, striped shirt and suspenders, and he peers at you from beneath the brim of a metal safety hat.

He's a man of any size, and he gets closer to nature than almost anybody else. Every day. He likes it that way.

He builds roads with bulldozers, track drills and dynamite, falls timber, bucks and limbs the trees with a power saw, and yards the logs with a slack line, steel towers, radio carriages and high-lead yarders. He uses a large heel boom shovel with grapples to load the logs onto trucks, then delivers them to the mills.

He works in brush and underbrush, saplings and second-growth, dust and snow, freshly turned dirt and often greasy mud.

During his day's work he grunts and groans, tumbles and scrambles, carefully watches and cautiously listens, and once in a while he rests.

Sometimes he works so hard he feels like he has shrunk.

But so important is his work, such a vital part of the life and death of this country are his efforts, so indispensable are the trees he provides, that deep inside he knows, we all know, that he has not shrunk at all.

Because the logger is a giant.

THE PENNY STORY

How the college crowd discovered PENNEY'S

By ROBERTA NASH

My niece put me wise to how it happened in her case. "I went in for some stuff—like a bedspread, and things—for my dorm room.

"Well, on the way I walked by these cool sweaters and skirts, like I never thought Penney's sold. Dresses, too. They were terrific.

"So I got everything I needed without running all over and I saved a bundle besides. You know, Aunt Roberta, Penney's is a lot more hip than they used to be. You ought to tell people about it."

We, the editors of the 1970 Saghalie, would like to express our appreciation to those who have contributed their time and effort in order to make this yearbook successful. Without the strong support of Mr. Steinbacher and the financial backing from the businessmen of the community, the Saghalie would not have been possible.

We have tried earnestly to cover the events and happenings of this year in order to bring you the most complete yearbook possible.

hey,

you sure are a retarded - stupid - big headed - no good - but nothing but after all you are my cousin so I guess I love ya any way.

Love ya "40"
